

ANN MCCORMICK

ann@ann-mccormick.com

Find me on Twitter and Facebook as "herbncowgirl"

www.herbncowgirl.com

POPULAR PROGRAMS

Ten Must-Have Herbs for Cooks

The Herb 'n Cowgirl reveals the ten herbs every cook should have and how to grow them.

Creating Culinary Containers

In one afternoon you can create container gardens with herbs and vegetables for fresh produce year round.

The Well-Seasoned Garden

Learn how easy it is to combine herbs with shrubs and flowers for a flavorful garden.

Organic Gardening For the Skeptic

Ann goes beyond the organic gardening hype to find what works in your garden.

Why Is My Cilantro Dead?

An entertaining summary of the herbal questions Ann has fielded over the years.

If your audience is interested in herb gardening, you'll want to book Ann McCormick, the Herb 'n Cowgirl. A life-long gardener, she has devoted her time since 1998 to writing and speaking about herbs, her favorite subject. Ann brings passion, depth of knowledge, and a sense of humor to every talk she gives. Her programs are designed to provide useful information to both novice and expert gardeners in a relaxed, entertaining environment.

In addition to her speaking appearances, Ann is a frequent writer for Herb Quarterly where she pens the 'Herbalist's Notebook' column and other articles. She has contributed to regional and national home and garden and life-style magazines, including Organic Gardening, Country Woman, Gardening How-To, and Fine Gardening. To find out more about the Herb 'n Cowgirl visit her blog at www.herbncowgirl.com or find her on Facebook and Twitter as "herbncowgirl."

WHAT AUDIENCES SAY ABOUT THE HERB 'N COWGIRL

"Ann knows her subject...her enthusiasm empowers her audience to grow and use herbs." – Dotty Woodson, Texas AgriLife Extension Program Specialist

"Ann is very knowledgeable about herbs and gardening. Her love of both shines through in her well prepared and interactive presentations. She always draws big crowds at presentations she gives." – Janice Bunting, Greater Fort Worth Herb Society

"Ann is a knowledgeable, informative, and entertaining speaker...[she] is a good "show and tell" speaker and lives up to her persona as the "Herb 'n Cowgirl." – Steve Huddleston, Senior Horticulturist Fort Worth Botanic Gardens

"Ann was a guest speaker at the Arlington Texas Woman's Club and she was fabulous. She is so informative, knowledgeable and entertaining! She is the best!" – Suzanne Franke, Programs Chair Arlington Texas Woman's Club

"Ann McCormick is a very knowledgeable, enthusiastic speaker with a solid background in herbs. She has been a trusted writer for Neil Sperry's GARDENS magazine for a number of years." – Carolyn Skei, Editor Neil Sperry's GARDENS